Originally from Chicago, he has lived in Michigan, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Wyoming, Montana, and Colorado.

Career Highlights

Marlōn Hall began his financial services career in 2005 on the teller line at First Interstate BancSystem as an inaugural member of its Management Training program. He went on to perform as a personal banker, licensed personal banker, licensed sales assistant, financial advisor, and sales & service center manager over the next 3 years.

In 2008, he served as an internal wholesaler of annuities and mutual funds at Jackson National Life Distributors, LLC, raising over $169 million in assets during his tenure. He earned his promotion to regional vice president in 2010 and has since raised over $1 billion in annuity assets in that role. In 2020 he was tasked with leading a team of 5 other regional vice presidents while continuing to build relationships and raise assets in his own region.

In March 2019, Mr. Hall published an excerpt from his book Speak on Purpose in the magazine 401(K) Specialist. The book itself, Speak on Purpose, became Amazon's #1 New Release in Banking between April 15th 2019 and June 27th 2019. In 2020, Mr. Hall was elected to the National Association of Insurance & Financial Advisors (NAIFA) Indiana State Board of Directors.

Philanthropy and Service

Over the course of his career Marlōn Hall has been active in supporting his community through a range of initiatives. He currently serves as President of the Association for Wholesaling Diversity (AWD), a 501(c)(3) organization he founded in 2016 to heighten awareness of financial services wholesaling employment opportunities in African American communities nationwide. Since 2006, he has volunteered for and contributed to St. Vincent de Paul Society, Junior Achievement USA, Pelotonia and Second Harvest Food Bank. Outside of work, Marlōn enjoys off-road jeeping and downhill skiing. He and his wife particularly enjoy the mountains surrounding St. Mary's Glacier in Idaho Springs, Colorado and spend time there whenever possible.
